Previous Partners & Testimonials:

"It was studying abroad that taught me so much. I have new friends from Guadeloupe, New York, France, French Guiana, America, and just people from everywhere. So, being here, it teaches you how to be with people from other places, and how to communicate well and just be a good, good circle. My one piece of advice coming here in BH would be to put yourself out there. I know that it's stressful, and it's new, but it's so worth it! Just come and try Brazil out."
